FORD FACTORY ASSEMBLY PLANT

Twenty-three years ago, tours of the famous Ford Rouge Plant were discontinued. When production of the new Ford F-150 Pickup began in 2004, a new era of Rouge tours began.

Go behind the scenes inside the world's largest automotive complex. EXPERIENCE two state-of-the art theaters, which chronicle both the history and future of auto manufacturing in awe-inspiring, multi-sensory film experiences. SEE the 10-acre environmentally inspired "living roof" – the world's largest – on top of the final assembly building. An 80 foot high elevated walkway will take your group above a world-class assembly line. DISCOVER how Ford F-150 trucks are built. Tour is handicap accessible.

Wednesday, June 13 Time of Tour: 1:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. $38.50 per person

DETROIT, THE ALL AMERICAN SPORTS CITY and THE STORY BEHIND THE BIG D

Ever wonder what the world inside a stadium looks like – the inner sanctum of an athlete's world? At Ford Field, opened in August 2003, in Detroit your group can now enter this world with an exclusive behind the scenes tour. Your in-depth look at Ford Field showcases the old Hudson's Warehouse structure that has been incorporated into the stadium. See the luxury suites, the Lions' locker room, the team's unique new playing field, press boxes and so much more. This was the site of Superbowl 2006. You will also be taken on a tour of the city to see its culture and history, where it has been and what the future holds.

THE HENRY GREENFIELD VILLAGE OR HENRY FORD MUSEUM

Visit either one of these world famous museums that trace America's history for the last 300 years. Built by Henry Ford I, this is Detroit's number one tourist attraction. Among the 100 plus historic buildings in Greenfield Village, you can visit Thomas Edison's laboratory, Menlo Park, where the electric light bulb was born, and see the bicycle shop where the Wright Brothers created the first airplane.

If you choose to visit Henry Ford Museum, you could see Buckminster Fuller's futuristic house made chiefly of aluminum. It is said the Henry Ford wanted to collect one of everything ever manufactured in nineteenth and twentieth century America. Your visit to the 12 full acres of Americana collection will dazzle you. The displays are replete with priceless automobiles from the popular exhibit of "The Automobile in American Life" to the presidential limousines. The Halls of Technology tell us the unparalleled story of American Industrial Progress!
