Course Description

Spiritual healing has been, and continues to be, the heart of the Unity movement. Healing is seen to be more than the restoration of a prior state; it is seen as the complete manifestation of wholeness. In this course, students explore the process of spiritual healing and the nature of wholeness. Healing in all its dimensions is covered: spiritual, emotional, physical, relational, and global.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Assess the cause of human suffering, and how it can be transformed to spiritual wholeness.
2. Compare and contrast the role of love, faith and prayer in spiritual healing and wholeness.
3. Explain the relationship between personal wholeness and the healing of our world.
4. Determine the minister's role in healing others.

The above learning objectives partially fulfill the following program outcomes for the Master of Divinity:

MD-3 Recognize and practice personal habits that provide for a healthy ministry.
